---	---	--

06.11.2019 Qazi Rehan Shabbir, Advocate for petitioner.

Through the instant petition, the petitioner seeks quashment of FIR No.06 dated 17.09.2019 offence under sections 419, 468, 471/109/409 PPC registered at P.S. FIA Commercial Bank Circle District Islamabad.

2. The facts, in brief, are that on the complaint of respondent No.2, above FIR was lodged by FIA wherein it was alleged that an anonymous person, impersonating himself as Taha Zubair, in active connivance with officials of Sindh Bank, E-11 Branch, Islamabad, opened up an account and operated the same.

3. It was submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that alleged time of occurrence has been mentioned in the FIR as the year 2013, whereas FIR has been lodged in 2019. It was also submitted that there is no justification or basis for proceeding against the petitioner.

4. Arguments advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner have been heard and the documents, placed on record, examined with his able assistance.

5. The fact that the alleged time of occurrence is the year 2013, whereas FIR has been registered in 2019 is no ground per se for quashing of FIR. Learned counsel for the petitioner conceded handing over relevant documents to the investigating agency, which means that investigation is under way. Learned counsel for the petitioner could not point out any cogent ground for quashing of above FIR in the instant case. As noted above, the investigation is under way and if, the case against the petitioner turns out to be false or frivolous, the law shall take its course.

6. For the above reasons, instant petition is without merit and is dismissed in limine.
