Initially the learned counsel for the petitioner contended that the instant petitions have become infructuous inasmuch as vires of STGO No.119 of 2017 dated 02.08.2017 was challenged, however, the same has been replaced with STGO No.144/2018 dated 12.07.2018. However, learned counsel for the respondents pointed out that the liability has accrued for the period between August, 2017 till July, 2018, learned counsel also submits that he has the calculations with him with respect to the amount outstanding towards the petitioners. Learned counsel for the IESCO/respondents No.3 to 5 also submitted that the IESCO is merely collecting agent however after the injunctive relief granted by this Court payments were made to the FBR without collecting the same from the petitioners.
