30-09-2019. Mr. Muhammad Akram Gondal, Advocate for the appellant.
Mr. Muhammad Abdullah, A.D Legal, FPSC.

This appeal is directed against order, dated 22.01.2015.

2. The facts, in brief, are that the appellant had applied for one of the posts of Deputy Assistant Director (BS-16) in the Directorate of Immigration and Passports, Ministry of Interior. The selection process was initiated and completed by the Federal Public Service Commission. The experience of the appellant as Inspector Excise and Taxation was not accepted and, therefore, he was declared not be eligible for being considered for the advertised post.

3. The learned counsel for the appellant has been heard at length. The learned counsel has mainly stated that the case of the appellant was similar to that of respondent no.2. He has stated that the latter had also served as Inspector Excise and Taxation. It is the case of the appellant that he was treated differently.

4. Mr. Muhammad Abdullah, Assistant Director Legal, Federal Public Service Commission has appeared along with Mr. M. Saifullah Gonal, Assistant Attorney General. The learned Assistant Attorney General has argued that respondent no.2 was not recommended/nominated for any advertised post. He has further emphasized that the Federal Public Service Commission has not accepted the experience gained as Inspector of Excise and Taxation since it is of an administrative nature.

5. The learned counsel for the appellant, despite his able assistance, could not satisfy that a case is made out for accepting the appeal of the appellant. For the above reason, this appeal is without merit and is, therefore accordingly dismissed.
