Mr. Ali Hussain Bhatti, Advocates for petitioner.
Raja Muhammad Aftab Ahmed, AAG.
Ms. Saadia Shezadi, State Counsel.
Muhammad Riaz, Inspector (Legal).

Through this writ petition, the petitioners have prayed for issuance of direction to the Federal Government and Inspector General of Police, ICT, Islamabad to give due protection to the petitioners as well as to their family members from unnecessary harassment caused by the police agencies of all the provinces including ICT police on the pretext that one of the brother of petitioners namely Liaqat Ali is a known criminal, who is involved in number of armed robberies, whose whereabouts were not known to them.

2. Learned AAG alongwith Inspector (Legal) from ICT Police Department contends that no harassment has been caused by the ICT Police Department to the petitioners or their family members, rather they are seeking information of the accused Liaqat Ali.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that the petitioners and their family have no relationship whatsoever with the Liaqat Ali who is their real brother and due to his involvement in different criminal cases, required by the police in different jurisdictions, the petitioners and their family members have disowned the said Liaqat by way of public notice in different Newspaper, but they are being harassed in routine. He further contends that the petitioners feel satisfied as the assurance has been given by the ICT Police Department that the petitioners and their family members will not be harassed in any manner.

4. In view of the statements referred hereinabove, instant writ petition stands disposed of.
