02) 17-09-2019. Mr Bismillah Khan Advocate, for the petitioner.
Petitioner, in person.

The petitioner has invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973 raising grievance regarding terms and conditions of his service.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner was asked to satisfy this Court regarding maintainability of the petition because the petitioner is an employee of a company incorporated under the companies laws and, therefore, the terms and conditions of service of its employees are not governed by statutory rules/regulations.

3. The learned counsel has been heard at length. Despite his able assistance he was not able to satisfy this Court regarding maintainability of the petition.

3. Admittedly, the petitioner is an employee of a juridical person which has not been established through a statute. The terms and conditions of service of the petitioner are also not governed under statutory rules/regulations. The relationship of the petitioner with his employer is in the nature of master and servant.

4. In view of the above, this petition is not maintainable and therefore, accordingly dismissed in limine.

CHIEF JUSTICE
