02.10.2019 Mr. Umar Hanif Kichi, Advocate for petitioner.

The petitioner is aggrieved of cancellation of his parking license by the respondents at Lake View Park (Phase-I), Islamabad.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner, inter alia, contended that license was valid till June, 2020 but has been terminated without any justification or basis. It was submitted that there is only default in payment of money for a few months, which could not have formed basis for revocation of license.

3. Arguments heard. Record perused.

4. The arrangement between the petitioner and the respondent is that of license. It is trite law that license is a contract, which can be terminated by either side. Admittedly, the petitioner defaulted in payment of dues under the license, on the basis of which, same was revoked/cancelled. If the petitioner is aggrieved of the same and is of the view that same is in violation of terms of license, he may avail appropriate remedy under the law.

5. The dispute between the parties is purely contractual and it is settled principle that in such cases, petition under Article 199 of the Constitution is not maintainable unless there is violation of law or patent illegality warranting interference; no such violation has been pointed out by learned counsel for the petitioner.

6. For the above reasons, instant petition is without merit and is dismissed in limine.
