Mr. Muhammad Yasir, Advocate for the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner after arguing the case at some length contends that he will approach the court of competent jurisdiction at District Rawalpindi because as per the report submitted by S.P. Investigation, Islamabad Police, in the proceedings before Additional District Judge, Islamabad in terms of Section 22-A Cr.P.C., the alleged incident, reported by the petitioner, took place within territorial jurisdiction of P.S. Rawat, District Rawalpindi and different FIRs have also been lodged in P.S. Rawat District Rawalpindi regarding the same building i.e. Walayat Complex.

2. From the perusal of record it transpires that the petitioner has claimed proposed action against Mr. Zahid Khan, Assistant Commissioner (Sadar) Rawalpindi who alongwith officials of Civil Defence and Punjab Police sealed different shops in the Walayat Complex in the territorial jurisdiction of P.S.Rawat, District Rawalpindi, therefore, this Court has no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the instant matter. However, petitioner may approach the court of competent jurisdiction at Rawalpindi.

3. In view of above, instant writ petition stands disposed of.
