Crl. Org. No.44-2021

Dr. Uzair Shah

Vs.

Mehboob Rehman

S. No. of order/ proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
	18.03.20210	Mr. L. Nawab Ali Noor, Advocate for petitioner.

Through the instant petition, the petitioner alleges violation of order dated 21.11.2019 passed by this Court in Crl. Misc. No.687-B-2019.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contended that respondent was granted bail by this Court vide order dated 21.11.2019 in Crl. Misc. No.687-B-2019, however, despite said fact, he is harassing the petitioner and not paying the amount with respect to dishonoured cheque. When confronted that in the said facts and circumstances, whether any contempt of court is made out, the answer was in affirmative.

3. Arguments advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner have been heard and the documents, placed on record, examined with their able assistance.

4. On the complaint of petitioner, FIR No.225 dated 03.08.2019 for offence under section 489-F PPC was lodged at P.S. Shalimar, Islamabad. Respondent applied for bail after arrest, which was allowed by this Court vide order dated 21.11.2019 in Crl. Misc. No.687-B-2019, subject to furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs.25,000/-.

5. The fact, that respondent is not paying the amount of dishonoured cheque, or is harassing the petitioner, in any way, as alleged by learned counsel for the petitioner, does not amount to contempt of court in any way. If the respondent has violated terms of bail or otherwise the facts and circumstances so warrant, the petitioner is at liberty to move an application for cancellation of bail.

6. For what has been stated above, instant petition is without merit and is accordingly dismissed in limine.
