

ORDER SHEET.

IN THE ISLAMABAD HIGH COURT, ISLAMABAD.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Civil Revision No. 284/2019.

Muhammad Arif Bhatti

Versus

Khwaja Muhammad Rashid, etc.

S. No. of order/ proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
-------------------------------------	-----------------------------------	--

27.02.2020.	Mr. Irshad A. Z. Muhammadzai, Advocate for petitioner.
-------------	--

Through this Civil Revision, the petitioner has assailed the order dated 28.05.2019, whereby petitioner has recorded his statement that he has not filed the suit and matter was adjourned.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter-alia contends that the statement referred in the said order has been recorded without giving valid opportunity to the petitioner to understand the legal consequence of such statement; that no final order has yet been passed and matter is sub-judice before the Court.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner has been confronted with the petitioner's statement, whereby, he confirms that statement was recorded and signed by the petitioner but in a different context and further contends that no final order has yet been passed by the trial Court.

4. Keeping in view the above, petitioner has failed to demonstrate from record, whereby any order, which effects his rights, has yet been passed except the statement of petitioner, which was recorded in the order-sheet on 28.05.2019, hence, civil revision is only competent against some order which is missing in this case and instant civil revision has been filed on mere apprehension, therefore, jurisdiction in terms of Section 115 CPC could not be invoked.

5. In view of above, instant civil revision is misconceived and the same is hereby dismissed in limine.

(MOHSIN AKHTAR KAYANI)
JUDGE

Zahid