04. Learned Judge Family Court vide impugned order dated 06.02.2021, passed an order, whereby interim maintenance allowance of each minor has been fixed @ 10,000/- and the total maintenance of three minors become Rs. 30,000/-, per month.

05. Being aggrieved from order of interim maintenance of minors, instant writ petition has been filed.

06. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that the petitioner is jobless and is unable to pay maintenance to the minors as directed by learned Judge Family Court, as and when petitioner will get some handsome job, he will start paying maintenance allowance and has prayed for setting aside the impugned order dated 06.02.2021.

07. Arguments heard, record perused.

08. It is mentioned in Section 14(3) of the West Pakistan Family Courts Act, 1964 that:

“No appeal or revision shall lie against an interim order passed by a Family Court.”

09. It has been held by the Hon’ble Supreme Court of Pakistan in a case titled as President All Pakistan Women Association, Peshawar Cantt Vs. Muhammad Akbar Awan and others (2020 SCMR 260), that:

“It is settled law that when the Statute does not provide the right of appeal against certain orders, the same cannot be challenged by invoking the constitutional jurisdiction of the High Court in order to gain a similar objective. Where a Statute has expressly barred a remedy which is not available to a party under the Statute, it cannot be sought indirectly by resort to the constitutional jurisdiction of the High Court. The High Courts exercising constitutional jurisdiction must be fully cognizant and conscious of this Rule and strictly adhere to the same in the interest of advancing the policy of law and delivering expeditious justice in accordance with the law and the Constitution. Even otherwise, constitutional jurisdiction is equitable and discretionary in nature and should not be exercised to defeat or bypass the purpose of a validly enacted statutory provision.”

(Emphasis supplied)

10. In another case titled as Chief Executive MEPCO and others Vs. Muhammad Fazil and others (2019 SCMR 919), the Hon’ble Supreme Court of Pakistan has held that:

"Where the Court or the Tribunal has jurisdiction and it determines specific question of fact or even of law, unless patent legal defect or material irregularity is pointed out, such determination cannot ordinarily be interfered with by the High Court while exercising jurisdiction under Article 199 of the Constitution.”

11. It has been held by the Hon’ble Supreme Court of Pakistan in case titled as Chairman, NAB Vs. Muhammad Usman and others (PLD 2018 SC 28), that:

"The powers of judicial review vested in High Court under Article 199 of the Constitution is no doubt a great weapon in the Judge’s hands however, the same shall not be exercised in a case where discretion is exercised by the subordinate court/Tribunal in a fair and just manner without violating or disregarding statutory provision of law, likely to occasion the failure of justice. Ordinarily such extraordinary jurisdiction shall not be exercised at random and in routine manner. The following case law is reproduced for the guidance of the learned Judges of the High Court for future course of action:

(i) Brig (Rtd.) Imtiaz Ahmed v. Government of Pakistan, through Secretary, Interior Division, Islamabad (1994 SCMR 2142).

(ii) Shahnaz Begum v. The Hon'ble Judges of the High Court of Sindh and Balochistan (PLD 1971 SC 677).

(iii) Malik Shaukat Ali Dogar v. Ghulam Qasim Khan Khakwani (PLD 1994 SC 281).

12. Reference in this regard may also be made to the following case laws:

(i) It has been held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of Pakistan in a case titled as Syed Saghir Ahmad Naqvi Vs. Province of Sindh (1996 SCMR 1165), that:

"The statute excluding a right of appeal from the interim order cannot be passed by bringing under attack such interim orders in Constitutional jurisdiction. The party affected has to wait till it matures into a final order and then to attack it in the proper exclusive forum created for the purpose of examining such orders."

(ii) It has been held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of Pakistan in a case titled as Mumtaz Hussain alias Butta Vs. Chief Administrator of Auqaf, Punjab (1976 SCMR 450), that:

"As the said Ordinance has taken away the right of petitioner to interim relief, learned counsel submitted that this was a ground which entitled the petitioner to prosecute a writ petitioner despite the pendency of the proceedings on the District Court. The argument is misconceived because the writ jurisdiction of the superior Courts cannot be invoked in aid of injustice and in order to defeat the express provisions of the statutory law."

13. Learned counsel for the petitioner has failed to point out as to how the impugned / interim order passed by the learned Judge

Family Court was the consequence of an error of law or without jurisdiction or in excess of jurisdiction.

14. In view of the above prospective, the instant writ petition has no merits and the same is dismissed in limine.
