W.P.No.3588-2019

Vs.

I.G. Police, Islamabad etc.

S. No. of order/ proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
	18.10.2019	Mr. Usman Ali, Advocate for petitioner.

Through the instant petition, the petitioner has assailed order dated 09.07.2019, whereby application under section 22-A Cr.P.C. filed by her, was dismissed.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner, inter alia, contended that petitioner was dispossessed from the property in question and there is a suit for specific performance of agreement between the parties. It was contended that under the facts and circumstances, a cognizable offence is made out.

3. Arguments advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner have been heard and the documents, placed on record, examined with his able assistance.

4. Admittedly, the petitioner agitated the matter against respondents by filing an application under Illegal Dispossession Act, 2005. The referred complaint was dismissed by learned trial court, which order was not assailed further. The petitioner, now through instant petition, seeks to agitate the matter again by way of initiation of criminal proceeding against the respondents. Even-otherwise, civil litigation is pending and dispute seems to be civil in nature.

The order impugned does not suffer from any error of law warranting interference.

5. For the above reasons, instant petition being without merit is dismissed in limine.
