VS

Director General, F.I.A., Islamabad and others.

S. No. of order/ proceedings	Date of order/ proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
02.	02.02.2021.	Mr. Muhammad Shahzad Qureshi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Through the instant petition, the petitioner has assailed office order dated 14.12.2020, passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge-IX, Islamabad-West, whereby petition filed by the petitioner under Section 22-A Cr.P.C. for registration of F.I.R. against respondents No.3 and 4, was dismissed.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner, inter-alia, contends that the petitioner has provided sufficient evidence to the investigating agency on the basis of which F.I.R. can be registered but taking a lame excuse on absurd grounds, the investigating agency has refused to register the case. Learned counsel further contends that under Section 154 Cr.P.C., the police is bound to register the case whenever the matter regarding commission of cognizable offence is reported to the police and refusal to register the F.I.R. has jeopardized the valuable rights of the petitioner.

3. Points raised need consideration. Notice to the respondents. Respondents No.1 and 2 are directed to file parawise comments/reply, so as to reach this Court within a fortnight.

4. Re-list thereafter.

C.M. No.01 of 2021.

Exemption sought for is allowed subject to all just and legal exceptions.
