Qazi Muhammad Nazeef, Advocate for petitioner.

The petitioner is a candidate of CSS Examination from Khairpur District. According to him, his district was badly hit by the last flood of the country, which made them shelterless and miserable, therefore, he alongwith many other candidates of the area could not prepare for the examination. According to him, the CSS Examination of 2009 was delayed for some internal problems and, therefore, the present examination, going to be started from 26th February, 2011 may also be delayed for few months. In fact the petitioner has prayer for it to be held in abeyance, because if he is not allowed to appear in current examination, he may become overage.

2. Heard and record perused.

3. The CSS Examination is held in every year and this year the closing date of submission of application was 31.12.2010, while the flood hit the areas in June / July, 2010. He had applied for his appearance in the examination on 21.12.2010 and it was his obligation to prepare for the examination, because for an individual the process of law cannot be held in abeyance. Hundreds rather thousands of candidates from all over the country would be appearing in the exam and accepting of this petition would mean their deprivation to contest for their jobs.

4. The petition being meritless is dismissed in limine.
