14-05-2019. Barrister Naveed M. Khan, for applicant.

The applicant through the instant application has sought review of order, dated 27.03.2019, passed in Criminal Misc. No. 194-BC/2019.

2. The learned Counsel for the applicant has been heard at length. He has mainly argued that this Court had failed to appreciate that the prosecution had contested the bail before the learned trial Court and, therefore, it was erroneously mentioned in paragraph four of order, dated 27.03.2019, that the prosecution had not challenged the bail granted in favour of the respondents.

3. The learned Counsel has been heard and the record perused with his able assistance.

4. The emphasis of the learned Counsel for the applicant on paragraph four of order, dated 27.03.2019, is misplaced because admittedly, the bail confirming orders, dated 05.03.2019 and 16.03.2019, were not challenged by the prosecution before this Court. Moreover, the learned Counsel for the applicant could not point out any error on the face of the order, dated 27.03.2019, requiring interference by this Court.

5. For what has been discussed above, the application in hand is without merit and is, therefore, accordingly dismissed.

(CHIEF JUSTICE)

Saeed.
