Learned counsel for the petitioner, inter-alia, contends that vide impugned order learned Trial Court has fixed interim maintenance at the rate of Rs.10,000/- for each minor per month, which is very exorbitant and is not according to financial position of the petitioner and it is also against the prayer clause mentioned in the main suit, whereby respondent No.1 herself has prayed that maintenance of minors at the rate of Rs.7,500/- for each minor be fixed, whereas learned Judge Family Court has fixed the maintenance of the minors at the rate of Rs.10,000/- for each minor per month contrary to the prayer made in the suit. Learned counsel further contends that marriage between the parties is still intact and respondents No.1 to 6 minors are residing in the house of the petitioner.
