Pakistan Telecommunication Company Limited
Versus
Malik Maqbool Hussain and others

S. No. of order / proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
	03.03.2020	Mr. Raheel Zafar Manager Legal, P.T.C.L./plaintiff Nemo for the defendants

While hearing the suit, it was observed that this Court lacks pecuniary jurisdiction over this case in view of the amendment in the Islamabad High Court Act, 2010 made through the Islamabad High Court (Amendment) Act, 2016, whereby proviso to Section 4 regarding pecuniary jurisdiction of this Court to entertain suits and proceedings having pecuniary value of One Hundred Million Rupees or more, had been omitted. This case should have been remitted to the learned Civil Court when the civil original jurisdiction of this Court was taken away in view of the amendment in the Islamabad High Court Act, 2010 made through the Islamabad High Court (Amendment) Act, 2016.

Since this Court lacks pecuniary jurisdiction over the matter, office is directed to remit the instant suit to the concerned Civil Court, Islamabad for further proceedings. Since the suit pertains to the year 2011 as such office is directed to comply with the directions at the earliest.
