S. No. of order / proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
--------------------------------------	-----------------------------------	--

03.07.2019	Mr. Shafqat Abbas Tarar, Advocate for the petitioner, Ms. Sameena Khan, Advocate for the private respondents.

At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioner, who was accompanied by the petitioner's father, submitted that the petitioner is aggrieved by the concurrent orders dated 12.02.2019 and 10.12.2018, passed by the Courts of the learned Additional District Judge, Islamabad and the learned Senior Civil Judge, Islamabad, respectively only to the extent of providing for the maintenance payable to the petitioner's minor children to be enhanced by 20% annually.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner after consulting the petitioner's father, submitted that he was of the view that the maintenance should have been ordered to be enhanced annually by 10% instead of 20%.

3. Given the rampant inflation in the country in this day and age, I do not find any arbitrariness or illegality in the concurrent orders passed by the learned Courts below by directing for the maintenance payable to the petitioner's three minor children to be enhanced by 20% annually.

4. In view of the above, this petition is dismissed.
