09.01.2020 Mr. Raees Abdul Wahid, Advocate for the petitioner.

Through this review petition, the petitioner has assailed the order dated 18.11.2019, passed by this Court, whereby writ petition No.1530/2019 was disposed of on joint request of the parties.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter-alia contends that the writ petition was disposed of by this Court on the statements of the parties, however, disputed question relating to rent of the vehicle No.ICT EC-744 Model 2015 Toyota Corolla has not been addressed.

3. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the record.

4. Perusal of the record reveals that the petitioner filed writ petition No.1530/2019, which was disposed of by this Court vide order dated 18.11.2019 with the following observations:-

“Keeping in view the above development, the issue has been resolved amicably between the parties, therefore, application filed by the petitioner before the Excise & Taxation Office, Islamabad has no legal impediment on transfer of ownership. The Office of Excise & Taxation, Islamabad is directed to transfer the ownership of Vehicle No.ICT EC-744 Model 2015 Toyota Corolla in the name of Ashfaq Ali Malik/respondent No.1 in accordance with law.

4. Instant Writ Petition stands disposed of, in above terms. Office is directed to transmit copy of this order to the Excise & Taxation Office, Islamabad for compliance at their end."

5. Contention of learned counsel for the petitioner that question relating to recovery of rent of vehicle No.ICT EC-744 Model 2015 Toyota Corolla has not been addressed in order dated 18.11.2019 is not justifiable under the law as recovery of rent of the vehicle is a civil dispute, which can only be resolved by competent Civil Court. No order can be passed for recovery of rent of a vehicle in the matter pertaining to Superdari of a vehicle.

6. In view of above reasons, the instant review petition bears no merits, therefore, the same is dismissed in limine. The petitioner may approach competent Civil Court to get redressed his grievance, if so, advised.
