F.A.O. No.91/2019
Aamir Malik
Versus
Pakistan Railways through its Chief Executive Officer/Senior General Manager and another

S. No. of order / proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
	27.06.2019	Barrister Khaliq Zaman, for the appellant. Ms. Huma Noreen Hassan, Advocate for respondent No.1. Ch. Akbar Ali, learned Assistant Attorney-General.

Through the instant appeal, the appellant, Aamir Malik, impugns the ad-interim order dated 23.05.2019, whereby the learned Civil Court did not grant ad-interim injunction to the appellant and simply issued notices to the respondents.

2. Learned counsel for the contesting parties were in unison on their submission that till date the learned Civil Court has not decided the appellant's application for interim injunction. Vide the impugned order dated 23.05.2019, the learned Civil Court had declined to grant ad-interim injunction to the appellant.

3. Vide order dated 27.05.2019, this Court granted ad-interim injunction by restraining the respondents from encashing the bank guarantee in question.

4. The learned counsel for the contesting parties arrived at a consensus to the effect that this appeal be disposed of with the observation that the learned Civil Court may decide the appellant's pending application for interim injunction within a period of three weeks from the date of the receipt of this order, and until the decision on the said application, the ad-interim injunction granted by this Court, vide order dated 27.05.2019 would continue.

5. In view of the above, since the appellant's application for interim injunction is still pending before the learned Civil Court, the latter may decide the same within a period of three weeks from the date of the receipt of this order. The contesting parties shall not seek any adjournment in the proceedings before the learned Civil Court. The ad-interim injunction granted by this Court, vide order dated 27.05.2019 would continue only until the decision of the learned Civil Court on the appellant's application for interim injunction.

6. Disposed of in the above terms. This issues with the consent of the learned counsel for the contesting parties.
