01) 03-12-2019. Mr Muhammad Arif Jan Advocate, for the petitioner.

Through this petition the petitioner has assailed order, dated 09-10-2019, passed by the learned Election Commission of Pakistan [hereinafter referred to as the "Commission"]. The controversy is regarding appointment of respondent no. 2 as Secretary General of "All Pakistan Muslim League". The petitioner claims that he is the acting Secretary General of "All Pakistan Muslim League". The petitioner filed a petition before the Commission assailing notification, dated 21-12-2018. After affording hearing to the parties, the learned Commission dismissed the petition vide impugned order, dated 09-10-2019.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner has been heard at length. The learned counsel, despite his able assistance, was not able to persuade this Court that the impugned order, dated 09-10-2019, suffers from any legal infirmity. The learned counsel could not satisfy us that the learned Commission had misinterpreted or misconstrued the statutory provisions. It is also not disputed that Article 128 of the constitution of "All Pakistan Muslim League" provides for a right of appeal and that no representation or petition was filed by the petitioner. The well reasoned order passed by the learned Commission does not suffer from any legal infirmity requiring interference by this Court while exercising jurisdiction under Article 199 of the Constitution.

3. For what has been discussed above, this petition is without merit and is, therefore, accordingly dismissed in limine.
