The entire case revolves around order dated 23.10.2013 passed in Transfer Application No. 03 of 2013, whereby the learned Single Judge in Chambers has transferred Civil Revision No. 02 of 2005 titled “Syed Abdul Hamid Shah V. Assistant Commissioner etc.” to any other officer of the FBR with equal status and nominate him for the disposal of the Civil Revision after affording opportunity of hearing to both the sides.

It appears that at the relevant time, the parties have serious concerns from the then Chief Commissioner/Member Board of Revenue, who has since transferred during pendency of proceedings. However, at this stage, both the parties are in agreement that the instant matter be heard by the present Chief Commissioner/Member Board of Revenue.

With consent of the parties, order dated 23.10.2013 is hereby set aside. Office is directed to transfer the record of Civil Revision to the Chief Commissioner, Islamabad, who shall decide the same after hearing the parties strictly in accordance with law within period of 60 days under intimation to this Court.

In view of above, the instant ICA stands disposed of.
