08.      29-11-2019. Mr. Mudassar Khalid Abbasi, Advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. M. Saif Ullah Gondal, AAG.
Mr. Qaiser Sarwar, Advocate for respondent/HEC.

The petitioner has assailed show cause notice, dated 04.05.2018.

2.      The learned counsels have been heard at length. It is not the case of the petitioner that show cause notice has been issued by a person who was not authorized or vested with jurisdiction. The show cause notice pertains to allegations which are not justiciable under Article 199 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973. Moreover, there is no reason for this Court to assume that the competent authority while proceeding in the matter would not follow the law. The learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that despite being a permanent employee of the Commission, the latter is not being allowed to join his duty. The learned counsel who has appeared on behalf of the Commission has stated that the joining of the petitioner will be entertained.

3. In view of the above, this petition is disposed of with the expectation that the competent authority will proceed strictly in accordance with law and the applicable rules. The petition stands accordingly disposed of.
