03) 14-02-2020. Mr Ali Murad Baloch Advocate, for the applicants/petitioners.

C.M. No. 567 of 2020.

Today, the instant C.M. was fixed. However, on the request of the learned counsel the main petition is being taken up for hearing. The instant C.M. stands disposed of accordingly.

W.P. No. 4390 of 2019.

The petitioners through the instant petition are seeking a direction so that they could be considered for regularization in the light of the principles and law highlighted by this Court in various judgments.

2. The petitioners are seeking a writ in the nature of mandamus. The learned counsel was asked whether before invoking the jurisdiction of this court under Article

199 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973 the petitioners had approached the competent authority. The learned counsel has stated that several representations were filed by the petitioners but their grievances have not yet been considered.

3. In view of the above, at this stage the petition is pre-mature. However, in order to meet the ends of justice the instant petition is converted into a representation and it shall be treated as pending before the competent authority. The latter is expected to decide the grievances of the petitioners after affording them an opportunity of hearing. This Court further expects that the principles and law highlighted by this Court in various judgments relating to regularization of contract employees shall be taken into consideration.

4. The instant petition is, therefore, disposed of accordingly.

CHIEF JUSTICE
