W.P No. 12 of 2022

Ameera Bibi, etc

S.No. of order/ Proceeding	Date of hearing	Order with signature of Judge, and that of parties or counsel, where necessary.
----------------------------------	--------------------	--

01. 04-01-2022 Mr Irshad Ahmed Zada Mohammad Zai, Advocate for the petitioner.

The petitioners are aggrieved due to inaction on part of respondent no.2. The learned counsel has stated that the predecessor in interest of the petitioners had fulfilled all the legal requirements and had also deposited the requisite fee. However, despite completing the formalities, respondent no.2 has ignored the case of the petitioners for allotment of a plot. The learned counsel was asked whether before invoking the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973, the petitioners had approached the competent authority of respondent no.2. He has answered in the negative. It appears that the petition was filed through a special attorney. However, in order to meet the ends of justice, this petition is converted into a representation, which shall be treated as pending before respondent no.2. The latter after affording an opportunity of hearing to the petitioners is expected to consider their grievance and, thereafter, pass an order in accordance with law at the earliest, preferably within 60 days after receiving a certified copy of this order. This Court further expects that respondent no.2 shall contact the petitioners rather than hearing their grievance through a special attorney.

2. The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
