Through the instant writ petition, the petitioner, Wasim ul Haq, seeks multiple reliefs.

2. During the course of the arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner drew the attention of the Court to the petitioner’s departmental appeal dated 26.02.2020 (annexed at page-7 of this petition), and submitted that the petitioner would be satisfied if a direction is given to the International Islamic University, Islamabad to decide the said appeal expeditiously and in accordance with the law.

3. The Division Bench of this Court, vide judgment dated 21.03.2019 passed in I.C.A. No.67/2019 titled “Dr. Sana Ullah Vs. the International Islamic University” has already held that since the service rules of International Islamic University, Islamabad, are non-statutory, a writ petition cannot be filed by the employee of the said University to agitate a matter regarding the terms and conditions of service. Therefore, this Court cannot issue a direction to the International Islamic University, Islamabad in exercise of its jurisdiction under Article 199 of the Constitution. However, it is expected that the Board of Governors of the International Islamic University, Islamabad would decide the petitioner’s appeal expeditiously.
