M/s Ashraf Ali Awan and Laiq Siddique, Advocates for the petitioner.
Mr. Riaz Hussain Azam Bhopara, Advocate for respondent No.2.
Barrister Sohail Nawaz, Advocate for respondent No.4.

The learned counsels who are representing respondents No. 2 and 4, taking a fair stance, have stated that the matter did proceed ex-parte and that the Customs Appellate Tribunal is presently dysfunctional.

2. Given that the appeal is pending before the Tribunal and the statutory remedy provided for the petitioner is presently not available the respondents are directed not to affect any recovery from the petitioner through coercive means for a period of seven days after the stay application pending before the Tribunal has been decided.

3. The petition is disposed of accordingly.
