S. No. of order/ proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.

01. 14.01.2019. Rao Athar Akhlaq, Advocate for the petitioner.

Through the instant petition, the petitioner has prayed for initiation of contempt of Court proceedings against the respondents for disobedience of order dated 06.11.2018 passed in writ petition No.1931/2018.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter-alia contends that despite setting aside of the office memorandum, issued by ZTBL Authorities on 03.05.2018, vide order dated 06.11.2018, the petitioner has not been allowed to rejoin his service, which is willful defiance of order of this Court.

3. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the record.

4. From perusal of the record, it has been observed that the petitioner was terminated from his service vide office memorandum dated 03.05.2018 due to non-verification of his master degree in Computer Sciences Session 1999-2001 issued by Al-Khair University (AJK) but during the course of the proceedings in the writ petition, the HEC and the concerned University verified master degree of the petitioner, which was found genuine, therefore, impugned office memorandum was set aside by this Court vide order dated 06.11.2018 and ZTBL Authorities were directed to receive certified master degree of the petitioner and to pass an appropriate order in this regard but in my humble view after setting aside office memorandum dated 03.05.2018 there is no legal impediment in the way of the petitioner to join his service, however, no such direction was passed in the order dated 06.11.2018.

5. In view of the above reasons, the instant petition is misconceived, therefore, the same is hereby dismissed. The petitioner may approach ZTBL Authorities to rejoin his service and if the petitioner is not allowed to rejoin his service, he may resort to his legal remedy available to him under the law. Office is directed to send copy of the this order to the President Zarai Taraqiati Bank Limited, Islamabad for information.
