Petitioner in person.
Mr. Khurram Mehmood Qureshi, Advocate for respondent No.2.
Mr. Zohaib Hassan Gondal, State Counsel.

The petitioner in person and learned counsel for respondent No.2/ complainant, appeared before this Court and state that they have entered into a compromise outside the Court. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 states that the complainant/ respondent No.2, does not want to prosecute the petitioner any more, on the basis of compromise arrived at, in between them.

2. Briefly stated facts of the case are that the petitioner was convicted under Section 489-F PPC, in the FIR No.162, dated 29.05.2011 registered at Police Station Baharakhu, Islamabad. After usual investigation challan was submitted before the learned Judicial Magistrate (East), Islamabad. After trial the petitioner was convicted and sentenced by the learned Judicial Magistrate (East), Islamabad, for one year, with fine of Rs.5,000/- (five thousand), in default of payment of fine, to further undergo Simple Imprisonment for a period of one month.

3. Being aggrieved from the conviction and sentence, the petitioner filed an appeal before the learned Additional Sessions Judge (East), Islamabad, which was dismissed vide order dated 29.04.2016. Through the instant Criminal Revision Petition, the petitioner has challenged both the judgment dated 26.02.2016, passed by the learned Judicial Magistrate (East), and judgment dated 29.04.2016, passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge (East), Islamabad, before this Court.

4. Today, the parties appeared before the Court and stated that they have entered into a compromise outside the Court. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 states that the complainant does not want to prosecute the petitioner any more.

5. In view of the above circumstances and keeping in view the better relationship in between the parties, as Section 489-F PPC, is compoundable one, therefore, the instant Criminal Revision Petition is allowed, by setting aside both the impugned judgments dated 26.02.2016 and 29.04.2016 passed by the learned courts below. The petitioner is on bail, his bail bonds and surety shall stand discharged.
