Civil judge (West) Islamabad, etc

S. No. of order/ proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
(3)	17.05.2019.	Ms. Saddiqua Faisal, Advocate for appellant.

Learned counsel for the appellant contends that appellant is judgment debtor in this case and order dated 29.04.2019 passed by learned Civil Judge 1st Class, (West) Islamabad whereby, non-bailable warrant of arrest of judgment debtor has been issued and his CNIC has been blocked, although appellant has paid principal amount of decree. Learned counsel further contends that appellant is a senior citizen and could not appear before the Court and his real son was present for submission of surety on his behalf but learned executing Court rejected his request and passed impugned order. Learned counsel for the appellant when confronted about readiness of appellant to appear before learned executing Court, she conceded that appellant will appear in the Court in compliance of order passed by learned executing Court on 10.04.2019.

2. Be that as it may, instant E.F.A. stands disposed of with direction to the appellant to appear in person before the learned executing Court on next date of hearing, till than his non-bailable warrant is suspended. It is expected from learned executing Court to proceed in accordance with law after giving due hearing to the appellant.
