ORDER SHEET.

IN THE ISLAMABAD HIGH COURT, ISLAMABAD.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Criminal Revision No. 98/2016

Bilal Rafiq.
Versus
The State & another.

S. No. of order/ proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
	25.08.2020	Ch. Qaiser Nazir Sipra, Advocate alongwith the petitioner. Mr. Hammad Saeed Dar, State Counsel. Respondent No.2, in person. Fazal, Sub-Inspector. Perusal of record reveals that the petitioner, namely Bilal Rafiq, was convicted under Section 489-F PPC and was sentenced to undergo for two years simple imprisonment with fine of Rs.20,000/-, vide judgment, dated 27.10.2015 by the learned Judicial Magistrate (West), Islamabad. Petitioner challenged the said conviction, but his appeal was dismissed by the court of learned Additional Sessions Judge (West), Islamabad, vide judgment, dated 05.04.2016. Feeling aggrieved, the petitioner has filed this Criminal Revision Petition. 2. Today, learned counsel for petitioner submits that the parties have entered into a compromise. Complainant/ respondent No.2, namely Sohail Ahmed Khan, is also in attendance, has submitted a compromise deed, which is placed on record as Mark-A. 3. Perusal of the said compromise deed reveals that the parties have entered into a compromise outside the Court and complainant/ respondent No.2 does not want to further prosecute the accused/ petitioner.

4. Since the offence under Section 489-F PPC is compoundable, therefore, keeping in view, the better relations in between the parties, the compromise executed in between the parties is, accepted as a result of which the conviction and sentence awarded to the accused/ petitioner, vide judgment dated 27.10.2015, is hereby set aside. The petitioner is acquitted from the charge. The petitioner is on bail; therefore, his bail bonds shall stand discharged.

5. Accordingly, the instant Criminal Revision Petition stands disposed of, in the above terms.
